BYSO Office is Having Email Issues

The BYSO office has been having difficulty getting emails through to our some of our families. One reason for this is that mail systems like Gmail try to protect their users from senders that are not in their "whitelist." If you have been waiting for an email response from us, call us at 425.467.5604.

For now, we recommend marking any BYSO-related emails as "safe" or "not junk." We also recommend adding BYSO email addresses to your contacts including info@byso.org, admin@byso.org, and auditions@byso.org. Our newsletters are always posted on the website. Let us know if you have any questions or need further assistance.
